Liberal Core Elective (3 hours):

Any course listed to satisfy any area of the Liberal Education Core that is not already being used to fulfill a core area.

Courses chosen to fulfill an area of the Liberal Education Core can only be used to satisfy that one requirement. You may not use the same course for two requirement areas.

Exception: Courses used to fulfill the Writing requirement or academic major courses may also be used to satisfy the appropriate Liberal Education Core area.

English 100 requirement:

English 100 is required unless students have satisfied one of the following:

1. SAT I Critical Reading and writing combined test score of 1220 or above with a minimum test score of 500 in each component
2. ACT English test score of 27 or above and an ACT writing test score of 7 or above
3. AP/IB English test scores of 4 and 6 respectively

English 100 counts for elective credit only toward the hours required for the B.S. degree.

Academic credit is not awarded for SAT or ACT test scores.

Writing Requirement:

All first year students must successfully complete one writing intensive course at the 100 level before their fourth semester. In addition, before graduation, all students must successfully complete a second writing course at the 100 or 200 level. A&S, Blair, and Engineering writing intensive courses have a W after the course number. Peabody writing intensive courses have a "G" after the course number.

Note: First Year Seminars (courses labeled 115F) offered through the College of Arts and Science and Blair School of Music may count as writing intensive courses. Peabody freshmen may only register for First Year Seminars during the first week of the fall and spring semesters if the courses are open.

Please note that some courses listed in the HOD Liberal Education Core have prerequisites. The Vanderbilt University Undergraduate Catalog should be used as a reference.
