

QUARTERLY STAR

Susan Gray School Newsletter
Spring 2011

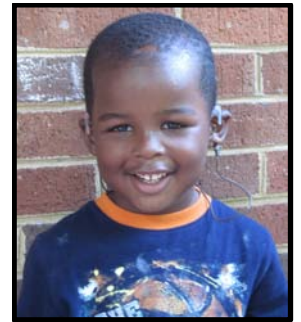

Spring is finally in the air and we are busy exploring the changes in the season, looking for new blooms and enjoying the warm sunshine on our faces. It is a time for planting, experiencing new life and new growth. Vibrant colors are popping up everywhere and excitement fills the school as we prepare for a spring full of fun!

SGS...MAKING MIRACLES HAPPEN

At Susan Gray School, our teachers, therapists, aids and staff work hard to ensure a positive learning environment for children with special needs and those who are typically developing. The progress these children make each year is amazing and exemplifies the high standards of development we hold here at SGS. Our goal is to provide the best possible atmosphere for advancement and we strive to reach that goal each and every day. This is truly a place where miracles happen. For more information on our program or to make a donation to our school, please visit our website at www.peabody.vanderbilt.edu/sgs.xml

RECYCLE FOR OUR PLANET AND FOR SGS

Find out how you can help our world and our school too! Visit our website for more information.

Go Green!

STORIES AND SONGS FROM MY BATHROBE

One Woman's Journey from Depression to Dessert

Join us for an unforgettable evening of music, stories, food and drink to benefit Susan Gray School. Five-time Grammy nominated artist and SGS parent Lynn Marie Rink will share her inspiring story, an event you don't want to miss! Make plans to be a part of the fun on Saturday, March 26th, beginning at 6:30 PM at the Wyatt Center

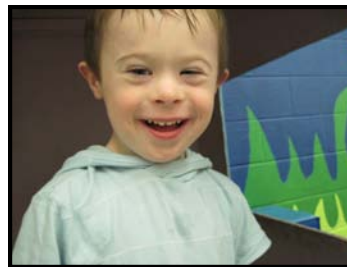

Rotunda on the Vanderbilt Peabody campus. For more information and to purchase tickets, go to https://secure.www.alumniconnections.com/olc/pub/VDT/event/showEventForm.jsp?form_id=70675

TENNESSEE TITAN MICHAEL ROOS GIVES TO SGS

Our children and staff were thrilled to welcome Tennessee Titans offensive tackle Michael Roos to our school. Michael graciously donated money to help purchase some new equipment for our gym. He and his wife, Katherine, stopped by to see the new items and celebrate with us. We truly appreciate their contribution and especially the time they spent here with us. The kids were so excited and can't wait to have them come back again soon!

The Susan Gray School is able to provide services to the community thanks to the kind donations made by people like you. If you would like to help fund our school, please visit our website at www.peabody.vanderbilt.edu/sgs.xml or mail your contribution to The Susan Gray School, Peabody #66, 230 Appleton Place, Nashville, Tennessee 37203.

Thank you!