WYATT CENTER

The white-domed Fine and Jack Wyatt Center for Education with its 10 Corinthian columns dominates the Peabody College campus. The Wyatt Center is one of the nation’s most advanced learning environments, with state-of-the-art technologies such as enhanced computer classrooms, video-conferencing, and multimedia presentation capabilities, satellite downlink and broadcast capabilities, and video-editing suites. Philanthropist John D. Rockefeller gave the landmark building to Vanderbilt/Peabody College in 1915 as a personal gift. Under the leadership of chancellor Joe B. Wyatt, who served as chancellor from 1992 to 2000, Peabody
