The Tennessee Academic Civic Engagement Program (TACEP) Model encompasses the Vanderbilt University Mentoring Model, the Principles of Good Practice for Combining Service and Learning, and the Tennessee Campus Compact to ensure a brighter future for Tennessee youth and engage students in their communities.

Mentors assist youth with high school completion and college access.

Mentees graduate high school and enter post-secondary institutions.

More college students mentor youth in local communities.

TN Campus Compact institutionalizes service-learning statewide.

More Tennesseans attain degrees and become civically engaged.
