*The above 15 hours of course work and a practicum meet state standards for the added endorsement in ESL PreK-12. With successful completion in the above coursework and practicum, documentation of second language acquisition, a passing score on the PRAXIS II exam (test code 360 Teaching English as a Second Language), and faculty recommendation for licensure, a teacher may be recommended for the added endorsement without completion of the 30-hour M.Ed. degree program.

For those seeking the M.Ed. degree with the added endorsement, the program requires 15 additional hours of graduate coursework to total 30 semester hours. All 30 hours must be listed on the Program of Studies for the degree, filed with the Director of Graduate Studies in the department. Following are the requirements for the remaining 15 hours in the M.Ed. degree program:

1. At least 9 hours from at least two of the following areas of study:
   - At least 6 hours of elective coursework selected by the student with the faculty adviser. Suggestions for consideration include the following study: language, literacy, linguistics, immigration (i.e., offered by A&S Political Science), applied linguistics (i.e., offered in the A&S Department of French and Italian), Mesoamerican Indigenous Peoples and their Systems of Writing (offered via the Latin American Studies program in A&S), multicultural children’s/young adult literature (i.e., offered via the A&S Department of English), etc.

   Additionally, for Peabody recommendation of the added endorsement in ESL:
   1. REQUIRED: Foreign language study equivalent to at least two semesters of college-level coursework. This work may appear on a transcript, or test score report (i.e., PRAXIS II, TOEFL, language placement exam at Vanderbilt) or documentation by Peace Corp language training records, military records, etc.
   2. SUGGESTED: recent First aid and CPR training
