Professional Student Travel Award Application
Department of Leadership, Policy, and Organizations
Peabody College, Vanderbilt University

Applications due Friday, September 13, 2013
Please type or print legibly

Date Submitted: ____________________________

Your Degree Program: EdD HEA IEPM LOP MPP

Name: ____________________________________________

Vanderbilt email address: ______________________________

Year in Program: __________

Name of the Conference/Professional Development You Wish to Attend:
____________________________________________________________________________________

Dates: ________________ Location: __________________________________________________________

Cost of Conference Registration: __________________________________________________________

Estimated Cost of Travel/Accommodations: _________________________________________________

Will you receive financial support from other sources to support your attendance (employer, assistantship, other)? Yes____ No____

If yes, in what amount? ________________

Are you presenting a paper? ________ If yes, what is the title of the paper? _____________________
____________________________________________________________________________________

Please explain the relevance of this conference/professional development to your degree and area of study.
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________

Advisor Signature ____________________________ Program Director Signature ____________________________

***************
For Dept. Use Only

Decision: Yes_____ No_____ If Yes, amount: $_______