Teaching and Learning

2011/2012
FOREWORD

Welcome to Peabody! This is your guidebook designed to lead you to successful completion of your major in Early Childhood Education, Elementary Education or Secondary Education offered through the Department of Teaching and Learning. Over the next four years, you will find it to be a ready source of information on your major requirements, policies and procedures, and offices to contact with your questions as you make your journey toward the Bachelor of Science degree in May 2015.

You will be expected to keep this handbook for four years and carry it to each advising appointment with your academic adviser. Each semester, you should update your program of studies checklist in the handbook noting the courses that you are taking to fulfill both Liberal Education Core and Major requirements. Keeping the program of studies checklist updated and checking your on-line degree audit will let you and your adviser know what is remaining in your degree program. Always go to advising sessions prepared with the list of courses that you plan to undertake for the up-coming semester and a copy of your degree audit.

The Peabody academic policies and procedures may not be the same as other Vanderbilt undergraduate schools. You should be familiar with the Peabody policies contained in this handbook regarding class-standing, probation/dismissal, transfer of credit, pass/fail, registration for independent study courses, and others.

If you have questions concerning information in this handbook always consult your academic adviser first. If your adviser is unavailable to help you, contact your department's Director of Undergraduate Studies. Finally, if you still need assistance or are uncertain of where to find an answer, contact the Office of Student Affairs (343-6947) or the Office of Records and Registration (322-8400).

Peabody Office of Records and Registration

The Office of Records and Registration is responsible for maintaining academic records of Peabody students from matriculation to graduation. This office prepares the Peabody undergraduate handbooks and the schedule of courses for each semester. It is also responsible for the maintenance of the on-line Degree Audits for all Peabody undergraduate majors and minors.

This office processes all academic record entries and changes such as address, adviser, grades, major, minor, track, and transfer of credit. This office also reviews students’ academic programs at time of degree completion. The Office of Records and Registration will send important notices by email to your Vanderbilt email address. Students are expected to check their Vanderbilt email account regularly.

Peabody Office of Student Affairs

The Office of Student Affairs serves Peabody’s students by facilitating their success and development. This office provides students with support and advocacy for a variety of academic, developmental, and personal issues. It also assists students in navigating the university’s programs, policies, services, and resources. In its work with students the office also assists their faculty and families when needed. The office is focused on promoting student accountability and problem solving as well as on supporting their educational and personal development.

The Office of Student Affairs works closely with other offices on campus to ensure that students are able to make connections and contacts that will enrich and improve their educational experience. This office also sponsors the Peabody Council, Peabody’s arm of the university’s student government, as well as the Peabody Academic Leaders (PALs) who serve to improve and support Peabody programs. The office coordinates events and activities such as Picnic with Profs, the Hanging of the Green, the gingerbread house contest and community service. Students are welcome in the office at any time to discuss their Vanderbilt experience and to take advantage of services available.

Peabody Office of Teacher Licensure

The Office of Teacher Licensure monitors progress toward teacher licensure for Vanderbilt students, including admission to teacher education (Screening I), admission to student teaching (Screening II), student teaching, and final recommendations for licensure in Tennessee and other states. It also facilitates and tracks PRAXIS testing.
Peabody Departmental and Program Offices

The five Peabody departments are Human and Organizational Development, Leadership, Policy and Organizations, Psychology and Human Development, Special Education, and Teaching and Learning. The departments administer the eight undergraduate majors.

Each department has a Director of Undergraduate Studies who is responsible for updating programmatic requirements, assigning academic advisers, meeting with students when advisers are not available, monitoring the progress of students in their program and sitting on the Peabody Undergraduate Administrative Committee.

The Undergraduate Administrative Committee (UAC) is a faculty committee that reviews academic actions, academic honors, petitions for policy exceptions, and requests for readmission.

YOUR ENROLLMENT SERVICES

YES (Your Enrollment Services) will be your entry point to access online academic services at Vanderbilt. Your academic record, mid-term and final grades, class and catalog searches, and term schedule will all be accessible from your YES “landing” page. YES is also where you will go to register for classes.

Tutorials, printed instructions, and online help will be accessible from YES to assist you in using the site. The URL for the online help is listed at the end of this document. This document focuses on the registration features of YES.
LANDING PAGE

Understanding your Student Landing Page
When you log into YES, Your Enrollment Services, you will enter the student landing page. You will use your VUnet ID and e-password to log into this page. This page will launch you to your academic applications. You can link to Access to Academic Information (AAI), Address Change, Graduation System (GRAD), Financial Aid, OAK, and many more.

On the top right hand corner there is a list of your enrollment windows. During these windows of time you will have the ability to enroll in classes. If you are not within an enrollment window, you will not be able to enroll in classes but will be able to search for classes, use your cart, and your planner.
You will also see a holds box on your landing page. If you have any enrollment holds, (student accounts, dean’s, etc) they will appear in this box.

Once you have enrolled, your schedule will be available at the bottom right hand corner of this page.

REGISTRATION

Searching for a class
When you enter the student registration application, the system will default you to the class search. The class search is term based. The term and session can be selected from the top left corner of the screen. Once you have the correct term and session selected, you can begin your search using the quick search or the advanced search.

The quick search is based on the subject area, subject area number, and title. The search will return any classes with your criteria in those three fields.

To refine your search, use the advanced search link on the right hand side of the quick search. Select the advanced search link and a box will open up with additional search criteria. Title, Catalog Number, Instructor, Subject Areas, School, Instruction Mode, Career, Component, and Meeting Days and Times are all available for you to use in your search. To search between times or credit hours, slide the black circles inward and outward. The tags can be used if you have added tags to courses within your planner. Please see the Catalog Search/Planner section for more information on tags.

Class attributes are a way for you to search for classes that are eligible for your major but are listed under a different subject area. For example, if you are an American Studies major all of your required classes may not be listed under the American Studies subject area. Some may be Sociology or Political Science classes. If you search by an ‘eligible for’ tag it will only return results for classes that are not within that subject area. Use the subject area field in addition to the ‘eligible for’ attribute if you want to see the subject area and all classes eligible for that particular major.

The search results are listed underneath your search criteria. You can see more details on the classes by clicking anywhere on the desired class in your results. Within the details, there is a link to the class syllabus and book information, if provided by the instructor. The book information hyperlink will bring you to the eFollett website for textbook pricing information.
The class can be added to your cart from the class detail or from the blue plus sign to the right of your search results. You can begin adding classes to your cart as soon as they are available for the term you wish to register for. You can add up to twenty classes in your cart from the search.

Enrolling in a class from your cart
If you are within an enrollment appointment or within open enrollment, the enroll button will be available in the class cart. If you are not within an enrollment appointment or open enrollment, you can still put classes into the cart as soon as the schedule is published for your career. Saving a class in your cart does not guarantee you a seat in the class.

If you need to edit the grading basis, add a permission number, or edit the credit hours of a course prior to enrolling, select the blue notebook icon on the right hand side of the screen for the class you want to edit. The icon next to the edit icon is the swap icon. Please see the edit and swap sections for more information on these functions. To remove a class from your cart, press the red minus sign.

To enroll in all of the classes you have put into your cart, press the select all button at the bottom of the cart. To select a few at a time, use the checkboxes to the left of your cart to choose the classes. Once the classes are selected, click the enroll button at the bottom of the list of classes.

Messages will appear at the bottom of your screen after you select the enroll button. The messages will either say you have successfully enrolled in the class or that you were not enrolled. If you were not enrolled, the error message will tell you why. If you receive an error message or a waitlist message, you will have to click on the message to make it go away. Success messages will disappear after five seconds.

Dropping a class
To drop a class, you must be within an appointment window or within open enrollment. If you are not within an appointment window then you will either have to wait for your next window to open or if you have no more appointments, you will need to be dropped by an administrator from that class’s department or by your school registrar.

If you are within an appointment window, navigate to your enrolled classes. Click the red minus sign next to the class you wish to drop. When you click the minus sign, the system will ask “are you sure you want to drop this class?”. If you are, press yes.

Once the system has dropped you from the class, it will no longer show in your enrolled classes list. To see the dropped class, select the dropped filter checkbox at the top right of your screen. The dropped class will appear in this list.

Swapping a class
If you are already enrolled in a class and want to enroll in a different class, use the swap function. The swap function will make sure you can enroll in the desired class prior to dropping you from the enrolled class. This functionality is available from both the enrolled list of classes and the classes the cart.

To swap from the cart, select the orange icon with the horizontal arrows to the right on the class you wish to enroll in from the cart. If you are swapping from your list of enrolled classes, select the same orange icon to the right of the class you wish to drop.
Selecting this icon on either screen will bring you to a list of your enrolled classes or a list of the classes in your cart. If you are swapping from the cart, select the class to drop if you are successfully enrolled in the class. If you are swapping from the enrolled list, select the class you want to enroll in. Once you have made your selection, click the swap button.

The system will take you to your list of enrolled classes. If the swap was successful, you should see the class you wanted to enroll in from the cart in your list of enrolled classes. If the swap was not successful, the system will give you an error message at the bottom right hand corner that tells you why you were not put into the class. Remember, the system will never drop you from a class using the swap unless it knows you can get into the class you selected from your cart.

Drop if Enrolled

Drop if enrolled can be used if you are waitlisted for a class. If you want to drop a class from your enrolled list upon getting enrolled from the waitlist, you can tell the system what class you wish to drop. This can be done as soon as you are added to the waitlist. This functionality is particularly useful if you have a time conflict with the class you are waitlisted for. YES will not let you enroll in a class from the waitlist if you are currently enrolled in a class that has a time conflict with the waitlisted class. You will remain on the waitlist if you do not set up a drop if enroll class in this situation.

Drop if enrolled works the same way if you are trying to enroll in a class that will take you over the maximum number of hours for your term. The system will not let you enroll off of the waitlist if that class will put you over the maximum hours allowed for the term. Your workaround is to set up a class to drop if you are enrolled in a class.

To set up this drop if enroll class, you must be on the waitlist already. Once on the waitlist, navigate to your list of enrolled classes. Select the brown icon with vertical arrows pointing up and down on the row next to your waitlisted class. Selecting this icon will bring you to a list of your enrolled classes. From the list of enrolled classes, select the class to drop if you are enrolled from the waitlist. To do so, select the same brown icon next to the class you wish to drop.

Once you have selected your drop if enroll class, press the save button. The system will bring you to your list of enrolled classes. There will be a note underneath your waitlisted class that tells you what class will be dropped if you are enrolled off of the waitlist.

Editing hours/Grading Basis

Editing a class will allow you to do a variety of things. You can edit a class to change the grading basis, change the credit hours if your class is a variable credit class, or enter in permission numbers.

If you are eligible to change the grading basis for the class you wish to enroll in, you can do so from the cart or the list of enrolled classes. Select the icon to the right of the class that looks like a notebook. This will prompt a pop up that will let you edit the class. If you are editing the grading basis, you can select from here. P/NP stands for pass/no pass. If you are not eligible to take a class P/NP, this option will not appear. First year students are not allowed to elect to take a class P/NP.

To edit the hours of a variable credit class, use the same blue notebook icon to the right of the class.

Use the hours dropdown to select the number of hours.
If a class requires consent, you may be given a permission number to enroll in the class. If you are given a permission number upon receiving consent for a class, you must enter the permission number in the edit function prior to enrolling in the class. To do this, select the same blue notebook icon next to the class. If a class requires a permission number, you will not be able to enroll in the class without adding your permission number in the cart.

Catalog Search and Planner
Unlike the class search, the catalog is available year round. The class search is only available for schedules that have been published for the term. You can search the catalog and add courses to your planner whenever you want to. The catalog search works very much like the class quick search. The search will return anything with your criteria if it is in the subject area, subject area code, or title.

The course detail is available from the list of results. To view the detail, click anywhere on the course row. The course can be added to the planner from the detail screen or from the blue plus sign to the right of the search results. Once courses are in your planner, you can organize them.

You can add tags to the courses in your planner. If you are thinking about taking courses in a particular term, use the term tags. You can add tags by selecting the purple tag icon to the right of the course in your planner and using the tags that are available to you in the pop up window. Please note that just because a course is in the catalog, it will not necessarily be scheduled in the term you want to take it. The planner should be used as a tool to help you visualize what courses you want to take during your time here at Vanderbilt. Just because you add a course into your planner does not mean you actually have to take the course.

The planner also allows you to create unique tags. Use the free format text box in the tag pop up window to add unique tags to a course. For example, if you know that certain courses are required for your major, you can create a tag that says ‘major requirement’. The system will keep a record of all the tags you have used so that you can reuse them on other courses within your planner.

The courses and tags you add to your planner will save between logins. So, if you add a few courses to your semester this term, they will still be there next term if you do not remove them from your planner.

Your Schedule: Printing and Importing
When you select the schedule link within your navigation bar, the system will display a graphical view of your schedule. This view is of a typical week. If you are enrolled in classes with ad hoc meeting patterns, you will not see them here. Use the filter checkboxes on the top right of your screen to overlay the classes in your cart and your waitlisted classes with your current schedule. The schedule is also available in a list view as well as a graphical view. To see the list view, select the list link above your graphical view.

If you need to email your schedule, select the email icon at the top right corner of the screen. When this icon is selected, you will see a pop up window with email fields. Enter in the email addresses of your desired recipients and click send.

You can also import your schedule to your personal calendar system. This import will pick up any ad hoc meeting patterns with your classes as well as your typical week schedule. To import your schedule, select the icon to the right of the email icon. Use the pop up window to enter the email address that you use with your personal calendar system (Gmail, Outlook, Entourage..etc).
General Navigation

YES is available from the Vanderbilt home page. You will see a link on the bottom right hand side in the gold bar on the Vanderbilt homepage to YES, Your Enrollment Services. Select this link to log in. Use your VUnetID and e-password to access YES.

Once you are logged in, the system will default you to your landing page. The landing page will launch you to your academic applications. To navigate to these applications, use the icons below your student photo or the applications tab in your navigation bar at the top of your screen. The navigation bar is the same throughout many of your academic applications.

Select the student registration link from your navigation bar or the available icons. When you enter student registration, the system will default you the class search. The registration application uses carousel navigation within the class search, catalog search, and schedule. Within the class search carousel, you can view your cart and your enrolled classes by selecting the arrows next to the quick search or by using the links to the top right of your screen.

When you view your enrolled list of classes from the class search carousel, the default view shows classes you are enrolled in or wait listing. If you dropped a class, use the dropped filter at the top right hand corner to view the dropped class.

Catalog navigation works the same way as the class search. To navigate to the catalog search and planner, select the catalog link within the navigation bar at the top of the screen. To see the planner, you can use the carousel to the right of the catalog search or click the planner link at the top right.

To view your schedule, select schedule in your navigation bar. The system will display a graphical view of your class schedule. You can use the filters at the top right of this graphical view to overlay the classes in your cart and the classes you are waitlisted for on this screen. A list view is also available for your schedule. Select the list icon above your graphical view or use the carousel navigation arrows next to your schedule.

Advanced Placement & International Baccalaureate Test Score Credit

Students are responsible for having official copies of all entrance test scores submitted before their first semester of attendance. The lists below indicate the Vanderbilt course credit to be awarded for the subjects and scores represented on the chart below for Advanced Placement (AP) and/or International Baccalaureate (IB) examinations. No more than eight hours of AP credit are allowed in any one subject area.

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

If you have 1) earned credit for Math in one Calculus sequence and 2) are taking or are planning to take more Math courses in a different sequence, please CAREFULLY READ A, B, and C.
A. Calculus Sequences

Several calculus sequences are available: 140; 150a–150b-170-175; 155a–155b–175, 205a–205b.

The courses in these sequences cover similar material, but at different rates, and therefore overlap in content and credit. Students should not switch from one to another without approval of the department. Such switching may result in loss of credit.

Students intending to take mathematics classes beyond one year of calculus are advised to enroll in the 155a-155b-175 sequence. First-year students with test scores of 5 on the Calculus BC advanced placement examination may choose to enroll in the 205a-205b sequence.

The chart below shows how these sequences relate to each other (plus MATH 140).

For example, if you have earned credit for 150a (3 cr.) and also complete 155a (4 cr.), you would have 2 hours of duplicate credit that would be deducted (see Duplicate Credit Policies to understand which credits would be affected).

B. Duplicate Credit Policies

Deduction of credit caused by duplication proceeds as follows: If you have earned Math credit

1. through Advanced Placement/International Baccalaureate in one sequence and complete a course at Vanderbilt in the other sequence that duplicates this credit, you will lose credit from your Advanced Placement/International Baccalaureate earnings.

   ex: if you have earned 155a (4 cr.) through AP and complete 150b (3 cr.) at VU, 2 credits will be removed from 155a leaving 2 credits.

2. by transfer in one sequence and complete a course at Vanderbilt from another sequence that duplicates this credit, you will lose credit from your Vanderbilt course.

   ex: If you have earned 155a (4 cr.) through transfer credit and complete 150b (3 cr.) at VU, 2 credits will be removed from 150b leaving 1 credit.

3. at Vanderbilt in one sequence and complete a course at Vanderbilt from another sequence that duplicates this credit, you will lose credit from the second Vanderbilt course.

   ex: If you have completed 155a (4 cr.) in the Spring and complete 150b (3 cr.) in the Fall, 2 credits will be removed from 150b leaving 1 credit.
C. Math Duplication Possibilities Table

As a tool to help you quickly calculate any math credit duplication, the Math Duplication Possibilities table below shows all the possible overlap scenarios between the calculus sequences (plus Math 140). Each line lists a course that was earned, a second course taken that duplicates credit with the first, and the amount of credit that is lost (see Duplicate Credit Policies to understand which earned credits would be affected).

The calculus sequences were reorganized in Fall 2008, with old Math 170a replaced by 170, and old Math 170b combined with 175. The table also shows the credit situations for these two old courses.

TESTING AND PLACEMENT AT A GLANCE

Writing:
Students must take English 100 if they do not present one of the following:

- AP/IB credit for English 102W and ENGL 105W.
- SAT Critical Reasoning and Writing combined score of 1220 with a minimum of 500 on each test.
- ACT minimum English score of 27 and a minimum writing score of 7.

GENERAL ACADEMIC INFORMATION

ACADEMIC ADVISING
Academic advisers are faculty members within the five departments. Peabody students are assigned an academic major adviser when they arrive for their first semester. This adviser is knowledgeable about the courses needed to complete one’s major. The adviser helps in schedule planning, makes suggestions as to which courses would be most suitable, and serves as a mentor to the student.

Students are required to meet with their academic adviser during fall and spring pre-registration periods to assist in selecting a program of courses that fulfill degree requirements. Advisers also are available during the semester to discuss subjects of a non-academic nature. Students are encouraged to make appointments to meet with their advisers and to establish a good adviser/advisee relationship from the beginning of their undergraduate program.

ADVANCED PLACEMENT
The well-established advanced placement policy endeavors to recognize exceptional high school preparation, to avoid requiring freshmen to take courses clearly mastered in high school, and to encourage students to begin their college learning experience at the level most appropriate to their preparation. Advanced placement may be decided on the basis of good performance on the College Board Advanced Placement Examination (AP), on the College Board SAT II Subject Tests, on the International Baccalaureate tests (IB), or, in some cases, placement tests given by Vanderbilt. Appropriate documentation should be submitted to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions before matriculation at Vanderbilt.

CREDIT FOR PREVIOUS COLLEGE WORK
Entering freshmen who have taken pre-freshmen college work during their junior or senior year in high school or during summers prior to their offer of admission to Vanderbilt must report such work to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions. The Peabody Office of Records and Registration will notify students as to whether such work may be credited toward the Vanderbilt degree.

Credit will be awarded only if the course is regularly offered by an accredited two-year or four-year college or university, if the teacher was a regular faculty member of that institution, and if a majority of the students in the course were candidates for a degree at that institution. Appropriate documentation, including course descriptions and syllabi must be submitted to the Peabody Office of Records and Registration for evaluation and approval by the appropriate Vanderbilt departments.

This question of credit at Vanderbilt must be settled in advance of the student’s first semester of classes.

The College of Arts and Science and Peabody College usually do not award credit for work at other colleges in the summer immediately preceding the student’s first semester at Vanderbilt. Summer work elsewhere will be accepted for credit only if an unusual educational opportunity can be demonstrated and if the courses sought are as rigorous as courses offered at Vanderbilt. Approval for work to be taken elsewhere must be obtained in advance from the appropriate dean.
CLASS ATTENDANCE
Students are expected to attend all scheduled meetings of classes in which they are enrolled; they have an obligation to contribute by full participation in the work of each class. At the beginning of the semester, instructors explain the policy regarding absences, and thereafter they report to the Dean of the College the name of any student whose achievement in a course is being adversely affected by excessive absences. In such cases, the Dean, in consultation with the instructor, takes appropriate action, which may include dropping the student from the class. Students dropped after the deadline for withdrawal receive the grade of F. Class attendance may be specified as a factor in determining the final grade in a course, and it cannot fail to influence the grade even when it is not considered explicitly.

CONSENT TO RELEASE ACADEMIC INFORMATION
Vanderbilt University is subject to the provisions of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (Buckley Amendment) that affords to students certain rights of access to educational records and imposes obligations on the University in the release and disclosure of those records to third parties. The Buckley Amendment regulations, however, allow the University to provide academic progress reports and other academic information to parents of students if the student is a dependent of the parents for federal income tax purposes. In order to confirm the University’s records and to administer the appropriate release of this information to parents, each new student completes a form to verify if the student is a dependent.

COURSE LOAD
During the fall and spring semesters, a student must take at least 12 hours of course work to qualify as a full-time undergraduate student.

Students wishing to carry fewer than 12 hours, or more than 18 hours, must obtain approval from the Office of Student Affairs. Approval must also be obtained if the dropping or adding of a course during the semester causes an under-load or an overload. Undergraduate students are expected to be enrolled full-time unless:

a) Fewer than 12 hours are required for the completion of the degree
b) The student has received special permission from the Office of Student Affairs to matriculate as a part-time student

Additional tuition is charged for each hour over 18 in a given semester.

Students who plan to complete the 120 hour (minimum) required program in eight regular semesters must average 15 earned hours per semester.

DECLARATION OF MAJOR/MINOR
Peabody students choose a major at the time they apply to Vanderbilt and are assigned to the appropriate department for the purpose of advising and program planning. Students are assigned an adviser in their major prior to the first semester at Peabody.

Freshmen who wish to change their major may declare a change beginning in October of their first semester. Forms are available in the Peabody Office of Records and Registration for students who wish to change a Peabody major/minor, or declare a Peabody second major.

Students wishing to declare a second or third major/minor through the College of Arts and Science must go to the applicable A&S department, fill out a Declaration of Major/Minor form, receive an A&S adviser assignment, and return the completed form to the Peabody Office of Records & Registration.

LIBERAL EDUCATION CORE
All Peabody undergraduates complete the requirements of the Liberal Education Core program. This Liberal Education Core component is intended to provide students with a solid foundation in the arts and sciences. Courses identified to fulfill the Liberal Education Core requirement for each Peabody undergraduate major are listed in the current program descriptions in this Handbook and The Bulletin of Vanderbilt University.

Courses used to satisfy these core requirements may also be counted toward the fulfillment of requirements for an academic major. Special topic courses are ordinarily not acceptable for meeting Liberal Education requirements. These courses require prior approval as substitute courses. Independent study courses are not acceptable for meeting the requirements for the Liberal Education Core.

Students enrolled in Peabody College are expected to satisfy most Liberal Education Core requirements during the freshman and sophomore years. Although legitimate circumstances sometimes force the postponement of Liberal Education requirements, upper-level students are not expected to have a significant number of these requirements outstanding.

MAY SESSION
In the interval of several weeks between final examinations in the spring semester and the beginning of summer sessions, Vanderbilt offers educational travel opportunities and a variety of “total immersion” courses that would be difficult to offer during a regular semester.

Students are permitted to take no more than one course during the May session. Housing and food services are available during the session.

SUMMER COURSES AT VANDERBILT
The ten-week summer session begins in early June and ends early in August. Peabody undergraduate courses offered during the Vanderbilt summer sessions are not intended to be comprehensive, nor are they predictable. Peabody students are most likely to take basic Liberal Education Core courses. For students who plan to attend summer sessions, the best strategy for predicting the courses that will be offered in a given summer is to look at the previous summer’s offerings.

Students who do not advance in class standing at the end of the spring semester will be required to attend Vanderbilt summer school to make up the hours and/ or grade point average deficiencies.
ACADEMIC POLICIES

ACADEMIC PROBATION AND DISMISSAL
Peabody requires each student to maintain an academic record that will permit graduation according to a specified schedule. After achieving sophomore standing, the student may not be on academic probation for more than two semesters. The student whose academic record warrants a third semester of probation normally will be dismissed from the University.

Freshmen:
1. The student’s grade point average falls below 1.800. Probation is removed (assuming there is no other reason for probation) when the student’s grade point average is raised to 1.800 or above.
2. The student fails to earn at least 12 hours in the first regular semester as a freshman. Probation is removed when the student achieves sophomore standing.
3. The student fails to achieve sophomore standing (24 cumulative hours and 1.8 cumulative grade point average) in the required two semesters. Probation is removed when the student achieves sophomore standing.
4. Freshmen who pass fewer than two regular courses in their first regular semester, or who earn a grade point average lower than 1.000 have so seriously compromised their academic standing that they may be required to take a probationary leave of absence during the spring semester.

Sophomores:
1. The student’s grade point average falls below a 1.800. Probation is removed (assuming there is no other reason for the probation) when the students grade point average is raised to 1.800 or above, except that at the end of the second regular semester the student must qualify for junior standing.
2. The student fails to earn at least 12 hours in the first semester of the sophomore year. Probation is removed when the student achieves junior standing.
3. The student is placed on probation by the Undergraduate Administrative Committee for failure to make satisfactory progress toward the degree. Probation is removed when the specified conditions are met.
4. The student fails to achieve junior standing (54 hours and 1.9 cumulative grade point average) in the required two semesters. Probation is removed when junior standing is achieved.

Juniors:
1. The student’s grade point average falls below a 1.900. Probation is removed (assuming there is no other reason for the probation) when the grade point average is raised to 1.900 or above, except that at the end of the second regular semester the student must qualify for senior standing.
2. The student fails to earn at least 12 hours in the first regular semester as a junior. Probation is removed when the student achieves senior standing.
3. The student is placed on probation by the Undergraduate Administrative Committee for the failure to make satisfactory progress toward degree. Probation is removed when the specified conditions are met.
4. The student fails to achieve senior standing (84 cumulative hours and 2.0 cumulative grade point average) in the required two semesters. Probation is removed when senior standing is achieved.
Seniors:
The student's grade point average falls below a 2.00. Probation is removed when the grade point average is raised to 2.00 or above.

Sudden Academic Insufficiency
Any student who fails by wide margin to reach prescribed levels of academic achievement, either at the end of a semester or at mid-semester, or who has been placed on probation more than once is reviewed by the Peabody Undergraduate Administrative Committee. The Committee considers each case within the general guidelines for maintenance of satisfactory academic standing and may take any of several actions, among which are the following:
- The student may be placed on probation.
- The student may be advised to take a leave of absence or to withdraw from the University.
- The student may be required to take a leave of absence.

Under certain circumstances, a student who has been formally dismissed may be readmitted to Peabody. The Peabody Undergraduate Administrative Committee must review and approve any requests for readmission.

ALTERNATE TRACK
Occasionally, students find that it will be necessary to reduce their normal course load due to medical reasons, varsity athletics, or other circumstances. The result is that they will earn the bachelor of science degree in nine or ten semester instead of eight. In such cases, the student may request Alternate Track status (normally done during the sophomore year).

After discussing the Alternate Track option with his/her parents and faculty adviser, the student must complete and submit a “Request for Alternate Track” form to the Peabody Office of Records and Registration. Along with the “Request for Alternate Track” form, the student is required to include a plan listing courses to be taken each remaining semester to complete all requirements for the degree.

Alternate Track does not alter the earned hours required to achieve sophomore, junior or senior class standing. A student on Alternate Track status must meet the following guidelines to avoid probation. The minimum requirements are:

APPEALS
1. Petitions for exceptions to academic policies, appeals of academic policy implementations by the Peabody Dean's Office staff, and appeals of academic actions by the Chairman of the Peabody Undergraduate Administrative Committee (e.g. letters of dismissal) may be directed to the full Undergraduate Administrative Committee.

Petitions and appeals should be sent to:
Chair, Peabody Undergraduate Administrative Committee
C/o Peabody Dean’s Office
Campus Box 329, Peabody College
Nashville, TN 37203
Fax: (615) 322-8501

2. A student may ask the UAC to reconsider a decision if the student has new information to offer. The Committee Chair will decide whether the full Committee will reconsider. Requests for reconsideration of UAC decisions should be sent to the above address.

3. A final negative decision of the Committee may be appealed to the Dean of Peabody, (at the above address) who may assign an Associate Dean to handle the matter on the Dean's behalf. The Dean or Associate Dean will consult with the Committee and other relevant faculty or staff as part of the review decision.

4. Appeals beyond Peabody College should be directed to the University Provost's Office.

Please see Chapter 6 (The Judicial System) of The Vanderbilt University Student Handbook for a description of the appeal process for non-academic matters.

CLASS ATTENDANCE
Students who must miss a class due to illness, personal reasons, or other reasons should notify the course instructor (prior to the class meeting if possible). In case of serious illness or personal emergency causing an absence from campus, the student may request that the Peabody Office of Student Affairs notify instructors. The Office of Student Affairs does not "excuse" a student from class; it will simply notify instructors of the student's absence. The final decision of how to handle the absence is up to the course instructor.

INDEPENDENT STUDY REGULATIONS
Intended for students in their junior and senior years, Independent Study courses, ranging from one to three hours of credit, are listed in the Schedule of Courses. Juniors or seniors wishing to take such courses must use the following procedure:

1. Students must be in academic "good standing" (may not be on probation or leave of absence).
2. Students must arrange the independent study with a full-time Vanderbilt faculty member who has agreed to supervise and grade this experience.
3. Students may enroll in up to three hours of independent study per semester.
4. Students must complete an Individual Learning/Directed Study contract that includes a written study plan detailing the nature of the project and the amount of credit to be earned. The Individual Learning/Directed Study contract must be approved by the instructor and the department chair (or the chair’s designee).
5. The deadline for submitting the contract to the Peabody Office of Records and Registration is the last day of the registration change period.
6. Registration occurs when the completed Individual Learning/Directed Study contract is submitted to the Peabody Office of Records and Registration. Students are not able to register themselves for independent studies.
The following Peabody independent study options are listed in the Schedule of Courses booklet:

- EDUC 2960
- MTED 2960
- ENED 2960
- PSY 2970, 2980*
- FLED 2960
- SCED 2960
- HOD 2980
- SSED 2960
- HMED 2960
- SPED 2960

Students may not repeat independent study courses for grade replacement.

*PSY 2980, Directed Research, is open to sophomores and second semester first year students.

PASS/FAIL
Students may elect to take courses in which they can receive the grade P (Pass). This grade is entered for the student enrolled under the P/F option who is awarded a grade of D- or higher. The grade P is neither counted in the grade point average nor used in the determination of honors. A failing grade will appear on the student record as F and will be counted in the student’s grade point average. The following regulations apply to pass/fail:

1. Students must have completed two full semesters at Vanderbilt before being eligible to take a course pass/fail.
2. Students must be in good academic standing.
3. No more than one course per semester may be taken pass/fail.
4. Students must maintain registration for at least twelve graded hours in addition to the course they are taking or planning to take on a pass/fail basis or the pass/fail notation is removed.
5. Students may take no more than three courses pass/fail during their undergraduate career.
6. No more than one course from any liberal core area may be taken pass/fail.
7. For students with a single, double major/minor, or interdisciplinary plan, courses in the department(s) of the major(s)/minor(s)/interdisciplinary plan or other courses counted toward the major(s)/minor(s) may not be taken pass/fail.
8. Liberal Education Core Courses that are specified for the major may not be taken pass/fail (e.g. Econ 100 for HOD majors).
9. Pass/fail must be declared on the registration program. Requests to change a course to pass/fail after the last day to add a course will not be approved.
10. Students enrolled in a course pass/fail may elect to change back to a graded status by the published deadline (approximately week eight of the semester).

Seniors who have met all other criteria may declare a course pass/fail with fewer than twelve graded hours. This must take place senior year during the fall or spring in which they are not completing student teaching or the HOD Internship. This applies to only one semester of the student's senior year. Registration for pass/fail with fewer than twelve hours must be processed through the Peabody Office of Records and Registration.

Seniors with fewer then twelve graded hours are not eligible for the Dean's List.
STUDENT CLASSIFICATION
In order to qualify for sophomore standing, a freshman must earn at least 24 hours with a grade point average of at least 1.8. A freshman who fails to achieve sophomore standing by the end of two regular semesters has one additional semester in which to qualify for sophomore standing. This additional semester must be completed during the summer session at Vanderbilt.

Listed below are the minimum requirements for reaching each classification:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CLASS</th>
<th>HOURS</th>
<th>GPA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Sophomore</td>
<td>24</td>
<td>1.8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Junior</td>
<td>54</td>
<td>1.9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Senior</td>
<td>84</td>
<td>2.0</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Students must qualify for the next classification after two regular semesters. Failure to reach these next classifications will result in the student being placed on academic probation. A student who is placed on academic probation more than twice after reaching sophomore standing is subject to dismissal from the University.

STUDENT LEAVE OF ABSENCE
A student desiring a leave of absence should obtain application forms and instructions from the Peabody Student Affairs Office. All students are eligible, provided they have not been dropped by the University and are not dropped at the end of the semester during which application is made.

TRANSFERRING COURSE WORK
It is the student’s responsibility to provide all of the information needed by the College to assess the program for which transfer credit is requested. Work presented for transfer must be from an accredited college and is subject to evaluation in light of the degree requirements of the college.

Work transferred to Vanderbilt from another institution will not be computed in the Vanderbilt grade point average but will count as earned hours toward the degree

No course in which a grade below C- was received will be credited toward a degree program offered by the College.

SEMESTER ABROAD WORK AT ANOTHER INSTITUTION: Students wanting to receive transfer credit for a semester of abroad work at another institution must receive approval in advance from the Peabody Office Records and Registration. In order to be eligible to receive a maximum of 15 total credit hours, students must obtain the necessary forms (available in the Peabody Office of Records and Registration). The following conditions must be met to obtain pre-approval to take courses elsewhere and complete the transfer of credit process:

1. If a Vanderbilt program is available in a city the student is interested in, the student must first apply to the Vanderbilt program through the Study Abroad Office. If the student is not accepted into that program, he/she may study abroad through a four-year accredited university other than Vanderbilt.

2. The student must be in good standing and have at least a 2.7 cumulative GPA at the time of application. Application deadlines are: November 15 for the spring semester, April 15 for the fall semester.

3. Courses must be approved by the appropriate department, and endorsed by the student’s adviser.

4. Transfer courses may not be part of the student’s final 24 hours at Vanderbilt.

5. An official transcript must be sent to the Peabody Office of Records and Registration to record the transfer credit on the Vanderbilt academic transcript.

SUMMER COURSE WORK AT ANOTHER INSTITUTION: Students enrolled in Peabody College may receive credit for a maximum of 12 hours during summers at another fully accredited four-year institution. Students must obtain the necessary forms and gain approval from the Peabody Office of Records and Registration. The following conditions must be met to obtain pre-approval to take summer course work elsewhere and complete the transfer of credit process:

1. The student must be in good standing with a minimum GPA of 2.0.

2. Courses must be approved by the appropriate department, and endorsed by the student’s adviser.

3. Transfer courses may not be part of the student’s final 24 hours at Vanderbilt.

4. An official transcript must be sent to the Peabody Office of Records and Registration to record the transfer credit on the Vanderbilt academic transcript.

In general, summer courses taken at another institution may be transferred to Peabody College as elective credit by students majoring in Child Development, Child Studies, Cognitive Studies, and Human and Organizational Development.

Students majoring in Education must complete a greater number of Liberal Education Core credit hours (up to 60 versus 40 for non-education majors). Therefore, they may take courses at another institution to satisfy liberal education core requirements (no more than one in any core area).

Enrollment in appropriate courses to fulfill degree requirements: Knowledge of university/college policies and regulations regarding academic matters are the responsibility of the individual student.
PEABODY’S EDUCATION MAJORS

For over a century, Peabody’s programs in teacher education have been recognized nationally. The programs differ from that of other schools of education not only because of the excellent quality of course work and multiple practicum experiences, but also because of the well-planned and carefully selected student teaching placements. In addition, nearly every faculty member currently is researching the teaching and learning of children, yielding new information and opportunities to practice newly researched methods of working with children of every need and ability. Peabody faculty members are noted nationally for their expertise and frequent contributions to national publications and professional meetings as well as consulting roles with government agencies in the field of education.

Majors that can lead to a bachelor’s degree and teacher licensure in four years are available in Early Childhood Education (to teach children in preschool through grade 3), Elementary Education (to teach children in Kindergarten through grade 6), Secondary Education (to teach adolescents in grades 7-12), and Special Education (to teach children in a variety of grades, depending on the specialty area). If programs are carefully planned beginning with the freshman year, all requirements can be met within the usual four-year undergraduate program. In some cases, particularly when a student enters teacher education after the first semester of the freshman year, additional coursework beyond what is normally done within four years may be required.

Most students who enter teacher education at Peabody have worked with children as camp counselors, team coaches, swimming teachers, or volunteers (although such prior experience is not mandatory). Because of the many opportunities to visit schools to observe and have limited participation during some education courses and practica, students gain early insights into the profession of teaching. For those students who complete the program and are licensed in Tennessee, teaching can be possible by interstate contractual agreement in most other states and overseas. Teachers who have graduated from Peabody can be found all over the world teaching children of all ages and abilities, nationalities, religions, socio-economic conditions, and cultures in careers ranging from preschool teachers to school superintendents and state and national officials.

For additional information on licensure, contact Chris LaFever (chris.lafevor@vanderbilt.edu), Director of Teacher Licensure.

BASIC SKILLS REQUIREMENT (PRAXIS I: Pre-Professional Skills Tests)

It is a Tennessee licensure requirement that all students seeking initial teacher licensure at the bachelor’s degree level must demonstrate proficiency in reading comprehension, language arts, and mathematics. Students who apply for admission to a teacher education program (Screening I) must meet this requirement by either: (1) attaining an SAT > 1020 or ACT > 22, or (2) passing the PRAXIS I tests (either the paper/pencil version or the computer-based version) before the departments can review their applications. Application materials for the PRAXIS I tests are available on line at www.ets.org/praxis.

Students should be aware that attaining the minimum scores does not guarantee admission to Vanderbilt’s teacher education programs. Minimum scores set by the state for PRAXIS I tests are as follows: paper/pencil version= Math – 173; Reading – 174; Writing – 173. (Minimum scores for the computerized version are: Math 318, Reading 321, Writing 319.)
SECURITY CLEARANCE REQUIREMENT

Each education student must have security clearance. Fingerprinting must be done during the first two weeks of enrollment in an education course that involves interaction with PreK-12 children or vulnerable adults. Subsequent to fingerprinting, background clearance analysis by the TBI and the FBI must be reported to Peabody. Register and pay the $48 fee online at https://www.cogentid.com/tn/index_tn.htm using the Peabody ORI code TNCC19116. Additional information is detailed at http://www.peabody.vanderbilt.edu/BCO.xml. Following fingerprinting, the Consent for Criminal Records Check form must be filed, with original signature, in the Peabody Administration Building. Students, in their role as a Vanderbilt student, may not participate in any activity with PreK-12 students or vulnerable adults until their background clearance is finalized at Peabody.

ADMISSION TO THE TEACHER EDUCATION PROGRAM (Screening I)

Each student seeking teacher licensure must be admitted into the teacher education program (Screening I) of the department he/she wishes to enter. The on-line applications must be submitted before the February 1st screening deadline during the spring semester of the sophomore year. However, with consent of the student’s faculty adviser, application for admission into teacher education may be made as late as October 1st of the first semester of the junior year. Students who transfer more than 24 hours to Vanderbilt from another institution must apply for admission into the teacher education program by the screening deadline of their second semester at Vanderbilt.

Deadlines to apply for admission into the teacher education program each semester are:

October 1st and February 1st (Note: If either of these dates fall on a weekend, the deadline is moved to the following Monday.)

Students MUST apply for Screening I at least one semester prior to completing Screening II (discussed in the next section).

The on-line application is at www.peabody.vanderbilt.edu/screening. It is the student’s responsibility to complete the application by the deadline, which is enforced. After an initial review in the Office of Teacher Licensure, eligible applications will be forwarded to the appropriate department(s) for faculty review and vote. During the initial Screening I meeting, the faculty will review materials submitted by each applicant as well as discuss each applicant’s performance and participation in coursework and field work. During this initial meeting concerns raised by the faculty will be documented and shared directly with the student(s) concerned. This will enable the student time address the concerns raised throughout the semester. The final vote by faculty regarding a Screening I application will be taken at the end of the semester in which the student applies for Screening I. Students will be notified of the results of the final departmental vote.

Criteria for formal admission to teacher education (Screening I) are:

A. Specific Criteria

1) 1020 SAT or 22 ACT (or passing scores on the PRAXIS I tests)
2) A minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.5 on the 4.0 system.

3) Successful completion of EDUC 1020 and SPED 1010 with a minimum grade of C- in each professional education course.

B. Specific Faculty Evaluation Criteria

These criteria rest on the professional judgment of faculty members. Whether a student meets them or not is determined by a vote of appropriate faculty.

1) Endorsement by the appropriate faculty that the applicant has demonstrated that he/she possesses the academic qualifications expected of Vanderbilt teacher education candidates in areas in which teacher licensure is sought.*

2) Endorsement by the appropriate faculty that the applicant has demonstrated that he/she possesses the personal and character traits expected of Vanderbilt teacher education candidates in the areas in which teacher licensure is sought.*

*An undergraduate student seeking secondary education endorsement must be approved by the Peabody Department of Teaching and Learning and also by the faculty of the College of Arts and Science department in which the student majors for the secondary education endorsement.

Students should be aware that departmental reviews are important steps in the screening process and that admission to the teacher education program and student teaching are not automatic with the attainment of a certain minimum grade point average and the completion of required courses. In the evaluation of a candidate’s suitability for teaching, faculty members take into consideration such things as:

1. Dependability (as evidenced by good attendance in classes and practica, as well as the completion of required assignments and procedures on time)
2. Professional and ethical behavior (honesty, acceptance of responsibility, emotional maturity, etc.).
3. Attitude and interpersonal skills (including the ability to work with children and peers).
4. Academic competence. It is possible for a student to meet minimum grade point requirements and pass all courses and still have specific academic weaknesses which might cause denial of admission.

Students seeking teacher licensure must be approved by each department through which licensure is sought. Secondary licensure candidates should contact an adviser or the Director of Undergraduate Studies in the appropriate Arts and Science department(s), to be informed of any specific departmental requirements or standards beyond the minimum requirements for licensure.

In order to help Department of Teaching and Learning faculty to make these evaluations, Screening I applicants must meet with faculty and individuals from local schools/agencies for a brief interview. Following the interview, faculty will submit a form directly to the appropriate program director.
During the Screening I meeting, Department of Teaching and Learning faculty will review materials submitted for each applicant as well as discuss each applicant’s performance and participation in course work and field work. Students will be notified in writing of the results of the departmental vote. In instances where there is a negative decision, a student wishing to appeal must do so in writing to the chairperson of the department denying the application. If the initial decision is upheld and the student wishes to continue the appeal. A written petition should be filed with the Undergraduate Administrative Committee of Peabody College.

FIRST AID AND CPR REQUIREMENT

To meet state standards, each licensure student must complete first aid and CPR training as a prerequisite to applying for Screening II (admission to student teaching). Information is detailed at http://peabody.vanderbilt.edu/licensure. Training is offered on selected Saturdays in fall and spring semesters at the Vanderbilt Student Recreation Center (www.vanderbilt.edu/CampusRecreation), but may be done at any approved training center. A copy of both first aid and CPR cards must be submitted in the Office of Teacher Licensure prior to or during the Screening II online application process.

ADMISSION INTO STUDENT TEACHING AND REQUESTING A STUDENT TEACHING PLACEMENT (SCREENING II)

The semester prior to the one in which a student plans to student teach, he/she must apply for student teaching (Screening II) and request student teaching placements. The student should be enrolled in any remaining required prerequisite courses. The deadlines to apply are October 1st and February 1st. (Note: if either of these dates falls on a weekend the deadline is moved to the following Monday.) The screening application form is at www.peabody.vanderbilt.edu/screening. The applications will be processed in the Office of Teacher Licensure, and if eligible, forwarded to the appropriate faculty for review and vote. It is the student’s responsibility to complete the application at the appropriate time.

Students must apply for Screening I at least one semester prior to completing Screening II.

The criteria that must be met for a student to be admitted into student teaching are as follows:

1) Admission to a teacher education program (passing of Screening I)

2) At least second semester junior standing

3) Successful completion (C- or above) in each professional education course prerequisite to student teaching

4) A minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.5 (4.0 scale)

5) First aid and CPR cards copied & submitted before or with Screening II application

6) Satisfactory performance (C- or above) in course work in areas in which teacher licensure is sought (any secondary education major who receives a grade lower than a C- in the second major MUST meet with his/her academic advisor in the Department of Teaching and Learning to discuss implications for Screening II)
7) Approval by the appropriate faculty. (A student seeking a secondary education endorsement must be approved also by the Department of Teaching and the College of Arts and Science faculty in the department in which the student majors and seeks a second endorsement.)

Students should be aware that departmental reviews are important steps in the screening process and that admission to the teacher education program and student teaching are not automatic with the attainment of a certain minimum grade point average and the completion of required courses. In the evaluation of a candidate’s suitability for teaching, faculty members take into consideration such things as:

1) Dependability (as evidenced by good attendance in classes and practica and the completion of required assignments and procedures on time)

2) Professional and ethical behavior (honesty, acceptance of responsibility, emotional maturity, etc.)

3) Attitude and interpersonal skills (including the ability to work with children and peers)

4) Academic competence. It is possible for a student to meet minimum grade point requirements and pass all courses and still have specific academic weaknesses that might cause denial of admission. Students seeking licensure must be approved by each department through which licensure is sought. Secondary licensure candidates should contact an adviser or the Director of Undergraduate Studies in the appropriate Arts and Science department to be informed of any specific departmental requirements or standards above the minimum requirements for licensure in that major.

Each Screening II application must be accompanied by additional documents. Faculty in the Department of Teaching and Learning require that the following materials be submitted electronically with the Screening II application to: JJ Street – jj.street@vanderbilt.edu

1) Professional resume

2) Statement (addendum) articulating why the student wants to teach

3) Copy of first aid and CPR cards to chris.lafevor@vanderbilt.edu

During the Screening II meeting, faculty in the Department of Teaching and Learning review materials submitted by each applicant, discuss each applicant’s performance and participation in course work and practica, and discuss the type of student teaching placements most appropriate for each applicant given his/her prior experience. Students who are approved to student teach will receive notification of their student teaching placements no later than during the Student Teacher Orientation (Monday before Vanderbilt classes begin on Wednesday for the student teaching semester). There also is a required one-hour orientation with the Office of Teacher Licensure prior to the end of the Screening II semester.

Students who have passed Screening II are assigned two student teaching placements in the Nashville area.
STUDENT TEACHING

Students who have passed Screening II to student teach the next semester must register for 12 semester hours of credit (9 hours of student teaching and 3 hours of seminar). State and district policy prohibits student teachers from taking any additional hours during the student teaching semester. NO OTHER HOURS OR COURSES MAY BE TAKEN WITH STUDENT TEACHING.

The 15 weeks of full-time student teaching will be divided into two placements. These placements will be based on each student’s major(s) or area(s) of concentration. Required orientations during the student teaching semester are scheduled by the particular program director. Observance of holidays during fall or spring semesters of student teaching is done according to the calendar of the school district where student teaching is performed. This means that the student teacher’s holidays may not coincide with those recognized at Vanderbilt during the student teaching semester. The VU Director of Residential and Judicial Affairs may be of assistance if there are anticipated housing complications during the student teaching semester.

One of the most important benefits to successful student teaching is the weekly supervision and visit from a Peabody supervisor during the student teaching semester. This design for supervision and frequent communication about student teaching performance requires that student teaching placements are within the Nashville area. During the 15-week student teaching semester, students travel daily to their student teaching site and once a week return to Peabody to participate in an afternoon seminar.

To be eligible for a teaching license in Tennessee and other states, a graduate must earn a positive recommendation from the University. The University’s recommendation of a candidate is based upon the following:

1) Maintaining the grade point average required for admission to teacher education (2.5 on a 4.0 scale)

2) Conferral of the bachelor’s degree

3) Achieving at least the minimum required scores on the PRAXIS II examinations. The student must have official score reports sent by ETS to Vanderbilt (code 1871); Testing requirements change frequently; check instructions in the Office of Teacher Licensure before registering to take PRAXIS exams.

4) Receiving positive recommendation from the department(s) of the education major(s) by the faculty as a result of the student teaching experience. (A “Pass” for student teaching does not guarantee a favorable recommendation.)

5) Completing an exit meeting with the Director of Teacher Licensure, including completion of required forms for transcripts and licensure application.

6) First aid and CPR certification done within two years prior to licensure recommendation.
Vanderbilt is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS) and the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE). Our teacher education programs also are approved by the Tennessee Department of Education and by national professional organizations corresponding with endorsement programs we offer—such as the Council on Exceptional Children (CEC) and the National Council of Teachers of English (NCTE).

APPLICATION FOR LICENSURE AND UNIVERSITY RECOMMENDATION FOR LICENSURE

All students completing a teacher education program at Vanderbilt are strongly advised to apply for a teaching license in Tennessee whether or not they plan to teach in this state. In addition, licensure is available in most other states. The student is responsible for applying for licensure through the Peabody Office of Teacher Licensure. Each state has its own set of application forms and procedures for licensure; information is at www.peabody.vanderbilt.edu/licensure. A required exit meeting to complete licensure application forms for Tennessee is scheduled for Monday evening the last week of student teaching.

PRAXIS EXAMS (Vanderbilt Recipient Code is 1871)

All students seeking Tennessee initial teacher licensure must pass required examinations. See the list of required tests for Tennessee at www.peabody.vanderbilt.edu/licensure. Students are required to take multiple tests, depending on their endorsement. Registration forms and test schedules are at www.ets.org/praxis. Because testing requirements change irregularly and frequently, check with the Office of Teacher Licensure prior to registering for PRAXIS exams. Although passing PRAXIS II exams for licensure is not a graduation requirement, it is required for licensure in Tennessee. Even if a student does not plan to teach in Tennessee, having a Tennessee teaching license serves as a basis upon which applications for licensure can be made in other states where a student is interested in teaching. Vanderbilt does not require that PRAXIS II exams are prerequisite to entering student teaching; however, it is recommended that students register for all required tests at the beginning of the senior year to ensure a seat at the preferred testing center and to request financial aid, if desired, from ETS to cover part of the testing fees. Testing early also allows for time to retake any tests, if necessary, and still have passing scores reported prior to graduation. For most endorsements (i.e., elementary, English, Special Education), testing must be done on at least two test dates because there are too many tests to take on only one test date. Most students begin testing, which is always on a Saturday, prior to the student teaching semester and finish testing during student teaching. Required tests for Tennessee licensure, test dates and registration deadlines are detailed at www.peabody.vanderbilt.edu/licensure.

It is recommended that, for May graduation, all PRAXIS II testing is completed by the March test date so that scores will arrive at Vanderbilt just prior to commencement, allowing the licensure recommendation to be made to state offices as soon as the degree is conferred. Delaying testing later than March causes delay in licensure recommendation, which may cause delays in a graduate’s eligibility to sign a contract for a teaching position in Tennessee or other states.

Early Childhood Education
EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION MAJOR
(Offered by the Department of Teaching and Learning)

Early Childhood Endorsement (PreK-3)
The early childhood education program is designed to prepare students for work with children in preschool programs and primary grades (PreK-3). The program's unique focus on children’s developmental thinking and reasoning prepares majors for work in both school and non-school settings that involve teaching, advocacy, policy, and informal learning opportunities. Beginning in the freshman year students observe and participate in a variety of educational activities in local schools, public agencies, and experimental schools on campus.

All early childhood education majors must complete Liberal Education Core requirements, the Early Childhood Education major, and a non-education major. The non-education major can be any major within Peabody College or the College of Arts and Science. Students choosing a second major in Special Education will receive dual licensure in Early Childhood Education and Special Education.

State regulations governing licensure in early childhood education (PreK-3) require Liberal Education Core courses beyond the 44 semester hours specified for a Peabody degree. Thus the program of studies for an early childhood major (PreK-3) will contain a minimum of 60 hours of Liberal Education Core courses instead of 44.

Although degree requirements for the various Peabody majors are outlined in the Undergraduate Catalog, students find it useful to have these requirements organized in worksheet form so they may keep track of their progress. A program of studies worksheet is provided at the end of this section. A schedule plan is also included to provide an overview of the program. In order to ensure completion of degree requirements within 4 academic years, this schedule plan MUST be followed.

As with other teacher licensure majors, students majoring in early childhood education must have a second major in another field of study. Depending upon the choice of second major, there may be additional courses required for licensure that will increase the total hours required beyond the 120 required for the degree. Students may choose either an interdisciplinary or single discipline major from the following:

Peabody College Interdisciplinary Majors
   Child Studies
   Language and Literacy Studies
   Math/Science Studies
   Natural Science Studies
   Second Language Studies
   Social Studies

Peabody College Single Discipline
   Child Development
   Cognitive Studies
   Human and Organizational Development
   Special Education (leads to added endorsement in Special Education)

College of Arts and Science
   Any major offered by the college

A description and listing of required courses for each of the Peabody Majors are found later in this manual. College of Arts and Science major requirements are listed in the Undergraduate Catalog.
Note: Vanderbilt students seeking Tennessee teacher licensure must apply for licensure through the Vanderbilt Office of Teacher Licensure and must meet licensure requirements in effect at the time of their graduation – which may be different from those in effect at the time they entered Vanderbilt. Requirements are currently undergoing change. Teacher licensure candidates are urged to consult the current Vanderbilt Undergraduate Catalog and/or materials published by the Vanderbilt Office of Teacher Licensure each year to keep abreast of possible changes in Tennessee requirements. Students should be aware that the requirements may change after publications of the Handbook and should be alert to notices or reminders sent from advisors or from the Office of Teacher Licensure.

WARNINGS:
1. Because many courses for the Early Childhood major are offered once per year it is essential that you follow the suggested schedule plan. Deviation from the suggested schedule will likely require time beyond the usual 4 year Undergraduate program in order to complete required courses.
2. Because this specialization requires more than the minimum 120 hours to graduate and be licensed, students must begin their second major their freshman year.
3. Students need to plan to take more than the normal 15 hours each semester and/or plan to attend summer school in order to graduate within four years.
Liberal Education Core Requirements

Mathematics (9 hours) to include:
Statistics (3 hours):
- Mathematics: MATH 127A, 127B
- Psychology: PSY 2101

Mathematics (3 hours):
SAT-II Math Test Score Level I of 620 and up or Level II of 570 and up will exempt a student from the 3 hour math requirement. Academic credit is not awarded for SAT II scores. Students with SATII Math exemption should take three additional elective Liberal Core hours.
Or one course from:
MATH 140, 150A, 150B, 155A, 155B
MATH 127A or 127B may be used here if not used for the statistics requirement
Mathematics Education (3 hours): MTED 2100
Natural Science (7 hours):
One Biological Science or Nursing course is required
One lab science (4 or 5 hours) from:
- Astronomy: ASTR 102 & 103
- Biological Science: BSCI 100 & 101, 105, 110A & 111A, 110B & 111B or 111C, 118, 218, 219
- Earth and Environmental Sciences: EES 101 & 111, 102, 103 & 113, 225
- Nursing: NURS 150, 210A, 210B

And one of the following 3 hours – must be a Biological Sciences or Nursing course if not taken as a lab science:
- Astronomy: ASTR 102, 130
- Biological Science: BSCI 100, 110A, 110B
- Chemistry: CHEM 101A
- Earth and Environmental Sciences: EES 101, 103, 107, 108
- Neuroscience: NSC 201
- Nursing: NURS 231A and NURS 231B
- Physics: PHYS 105, 110

Or two lab science courses (8-10 hours) will meet the Natural Science requirement as long as one is a Biological Science or Nursing course.

Cultural Studies (3 hours) one course from the following:
- African American and Diaspora Studies: AADS 101, 110, 120, 155, 200, 201, 210, 215, 221, 230, 260

Social Science (9 hours) to include
United States History (3 hours) from the following:
History: HIST 139, 141-144, 166, 169, 173, 174, 185, 186, 258, 259, 261-265, 269-271

Other required Social Science Courses 6 Hours)
Psychology: PSY 1630
Social Studies Education: SSED 2100

Liberal Core Elective (17 hours):
Any course listed to satisfy any area of the Liberal Education Core that is not already being used to fulfill a core area.

Note: Special topics courses and independent study courses are not acceptable to meet liberal education core requirements. Courses chosen to fulfill an area of the Liberal Education Core can only be used to satisfy that one requirement. You may not use the same course for two requirement areas. Exception: Courses used to fulfill the Writing requirement or academic major requirements may also be used to satisfy the appropriate area of the Liberal Education Core.

English 100 requirement:

English 100 is required unless students have satisfied one of the following:

1. SAT I Critical Reading and writing combined test score of 1220 or above with a minimum test score of 500 in each component
2. ACT English test score of 27 or above and an ACT writing test score of 7 or above
3. AP/IB English test scores of 4 and 6 respectively

English 100 counts for elective credit only toward the hours required for the B.S. degree.

Academic credit is not awarded for SAT or ACT test scores.

Writing Requirement:

All first year students must successfully complete one writing intensive course at the 100 level before their fourth semester. In addition, before graduation, all students must successfully complete a second writing course at the 100 or 200 level. A&S, Blair, and Engineering writing intensive courses have a W after the course number. Peabody writing intensive course numbers end with a “7” (exceptions: EDUC 2117 and EDUC 2217 are not writing courses.)

Note: First Year Seminars (courses labeled 115F) offered through the College of Arts and Science and Blair School of Music may count as writing intensive courses. Peabody freshmen may only register for First Year Seminars during the first week of the fall and spring semesters if the courses are open.

Elementary Education
ELEMENTARY EDUCATION MAJOR
(offered by the Department of Teaching and Learning)

Elementary Endorsement (K-6)
The elementary education program is designed to prepare students for work with children in grades K-6. Beginning in the freshman year students observe and participate in a variety of educational activities in local schools, public agencies, and experimental schools on campus.

All elementary education majors must complete Liberal Education Core requirements, the Elementary Education Major, and a non-education major. The non-education major can be any major within Peabody College or the College of Arts & Science. Students choosing a second major in Special Education will receive dual licensure in Elementary Education (K-6) and Special Education. Requirements for Peabody second majors are listed at the end of this section.

State licensure regulations which govern elementary programs require Liberal Education Core courses beyond the 44 semester hours specified for a Peabody degree. Thus the program of studies for an elementary education major (K-6) will contain a minimum of 60 hours of Liberal Education Core courses instead of 44.

Although degree requirements for the various Peabody majors are outlined in the Undergraduate Catalog, students find it useful to have these requirements organized in worksheet form so they may keep track of their progress. A program of studies worksheet is provided at the end of this section. A schedule plan is included to assist students' planning for experiences like a semester for studying abroad. Choosing the appropriate pathway will ensure that students meet all prerequisites prior to student teaching.

As with other teacher licensure majors, students in elementary education must have a second major in another field of study. Students may choose either an interdisciplinary or a single discipline major from the following:

Peabody College Interdisciplinary Majors
  Child Studies
  Language and Literacy Studies
  Math/Science Studies
  Natural Science Studies
  Second Language Studies
  Social Studies
Peabody College Single Discipline
  Child Development
  Cognitive Studies
  Human and Organizational Development
  Special Education
College of Arts and Science Single Discipline
  Any major offered by the College

A description and listing of required courses for each of the Peabody Majors are found later in this manual. College of Arts and Science major requirements are listed in the Undergraduate Bulletin.
Note: Vanderbilt students seeking Tennessee teacher licensure must apply for licensure through the Vanderbilt Office of Teacher Licensure and must meet licensure requirements in effect at the time of their graduation – which may be different from those in effect at the time they entered Vanderbilt. Requirements are currently undergoing change. Teacher licensure candidates are urged to consult the current Vanderbilt Undergraduate Catalog and/or materials published by the Vanderbilt Office of Teacher Licensure each year to keep abreast of possible changes in Tennessee requirements. Students should be aware that the requirements may change after publications of the Handbook and should be alert to notices or reminders sent from advisors or from the Office of Teacher Licensure.

WARNING: Because this specialization requires more than the 120 hours to graduate and be licensed, students must begin their second major their freshman year. Students need to plan to take more than the normal 15 hours each semester and/or plan to attend summer school in order to graduate within four years.

Other required Social Science Course (3 Hours)
  Psychology: PSY 1630

Liberal Core Elective (16 hours):
Any course listed to satisfy any area of the Liberal Education Core that is not already being used to fulfill a core area.

  Note: Special topics courses and independent study courses are not acceptable to meet liberal education core requirements. Courses chosen to fulfill an area of the Liberal Education Core can only be used to satisfy that one requirement. You may not use the same course for two requirement areas. Exception: Courses used to fulfill the Writing requirement or academic major requirements may also be used to satisfy the appropriate area of the Liberal Education Core.

English 100 requirement:

English 100 is required unless students have satisfied one of the following:

  1. SAT I Critical Reading and writing combined test score of 1220 or above with a minimum test score of 500 in each component
  2. ACT English test score of 27 or above and an ACT writing test score of 7 or above
  3. AP/IB English test scores of 4 and 6 respectively

English 100 counts for elective credit only toward the hours required for the B.S. degree.

  Academic credit is not awarded for SAT or ACT test scores.

Writing Requirement:

All first year students must successfully complete one writing intensive course at the 100 level before their fourth semester. In addition, before graduation, all students must successfully complete a second writing course at the 100 or 200 level. A&S, Blair, and Engineering writing intensive courses have a W after the course number. Peabody writing intensive course numbers end with a “7” (exceptions: EDUC 2117 and EDUC 2217 are not writing courses.)

  Note: First Year Seminars (courses labeled 115F) offered through the College of Arts and Science and Blair School of Music may count as writing intensive courses. Peabody freshmen may only register for First Year Seminars during the first week of the fall and spring semesters if the courses are open.

Secondary Education
SECONDARY EDUCATION MAJOR
(Offered by the Department of Teaching and Learning)

Secondary Endorsement (7 - 12)
The major in secondary education is designed to prepare students to teach one or more subjects at the secondary school level (grades 7 – 12). Students must complete Liberal Education Core requirements, the Secondary Education Major, and an Arts & Science major in at least one endorsement field, which involves 27 – 36 hours of coursework in the discipline. Students may wish to add an additional endorsement. Students are required to complete the appropriate methods of teaching course for each area of endorsement. In addition to completing a content major and the content based course(s) in the secondary education major, some licensure areas may have additional requirements as determined by State Licensure criteria.

Undergraduate students applying for admission into the teacher education program (Screening I) and into student teaching (Screening II) for secondary licensure must be approved by the faculty in the Department of Teaching and Learning and by the faculties of each Arts & Science department in which the student is seeking licensure. Students are instructed to consult an advisor or the Director of Undergraduate Studies in each Arts & Science department involved in order to be informed of departmental policy on approving students for teacher licensure.

Although degree and licensure requirements for the secondary education major are outlined in the Undergraduate Catalog, students find it useful to have these requirements organized in worksheet form so they may keep track of their progress. A general program of studies worksheet is provided in this section, and the Liberal Education Core and Professional Core requirements for the secondary education major are outlined on it. Specific licensure requirements, above and beyond the Secondary Education Major and A&S major requirements for the various licensure areas follow the program of studies worksheet.

Added Endorsements
Added Endorsements within the Social Sciences:
  o Majors in economics, political science, psychology, and sociology who are seeking licensure in Secondary Education are required to have an added endorsement in history
  o An individual who seeks primary endorsement in one social science area may add an endorsement in another social science area with the following requirements:
    o For an added endorsement in government, economics, sociology, or psychology you will need 9 hours in that content area.
    o For an added endorsement in history you will need 18 hours of history courses (6 hours of US history, 6 hours of European history, 3 hours of non-US, Latin American, or European History, and 3 hours of history 200.

Licensure in Two Content Areas (example uses Mathematics and History):
  o Methods course in each content area is required (e.g. MTED 2380 and SSED 2380) o Practicum in each content area (e.g. MTED 2360 and SSED 2360) not to exceed 45 combined practicum hours.
  o Student teaching is split between the two content areas – with one placement in Mathematics and the other in History
  o Student Teaching Seminar will be split. While student teaching in Mathematics you will attend the Math Seminar (MTED 2292), while student teaching in Social Studies you will attend the Social Studies Seminar (SSED 2292)
Note: Vanderbilt students seeking Tennessee teacher licensure must apply for licensure through the Vanderbilt Office of Teacher Licensure and must meet licensure requirements in effect at the time of their graduation – which may be different from those in effect at the time they entered Vanderbilt. Requirements are currently undergoing change. Teacher licensure candidates are urged to consult the current Vanderbilt Undergraduate Catalog and/or materials published by the Vanderbilt Office of Teacher Licensure each year to keep abreast of possible changes in Tennessee requirements. Students should be aware that the requirements may change after publications of the Handbook and should be alert to notices or reminders sent from advisors or from the Office of Teacher Licensure.

Exception: Courses used to fulfill the Writing requirement or academic major courses may also be used to satisfy the appropriate Liberal Education Core area.

English 100 requirement:

  English 100 is required unless students have satisfied one of the following:
    1. SAT I Critical Reading and writing combined test score of 1220 or above with a minimum test score of 500 in each component
    2. ACT English test score of 27 or above and an ACT writing test score of 7 or above
    3. AP/IB English test scores of 4 and 6 respectively

  English 100 counts for elective credit only toward the hours required for the B.S. degree.

  Academic credit is not awarded for SAT or ACT test scores.

Writing Requirement:

  All first year students must successfully complete one writing intensive course at the 100 level before their fourth semester. In addition, before graduation, all students must successfully complete a second writing course at the 100 or 200 level. A&S, Blair, and Engineering writing intensive courses have a W after the course number. Peabody writing intensive course numbers end with a “7” (exceptions: EDUC 2117 and EDUC 2217 are not writing courses.)

  Note: First Year Seminars (courses labeled 115F) offered through the College of Arts and Science and Blair School of Music may count as writing intensive courses. Peabody freshmen may only register for First Year Seminars during the first week of the fall and spring semesters if the courses are open.
Secondary Education (7 - 12) Schedule for Coursework in Major

NOTE: When planning a study abroad semester, move any courses listed in bold for the spring semester of the third year to an earlier semester.

Interdisciplinary Majors
The Department of Teaching and Learning sponsors a variety of interdisciplinary majors that are best suited for those students majoring in Elementary Education. However, these majors are available to any Peabody College student as a second major.

Specifically, the following interdisciplinary majors are available:

- Language and Literacy Studies
- Mathematics and Science Studies
- Natural Science Studies
- Second Language Studies
- Social Studies focused on Anthropology
- Social Studies focused on Economics
- Social Studies focused on United States History
- Social Studies focused on European History
- Social Studies focused on American Politics
- Social Studies focused on World Politics
- Social Studies focused on Sociology

Program of study sheets for each of these interdisciplinary majors are included in this section. For more information, contact Professor Amy Palmeri, Director of Undergraduate Studies in the Department of Teaching and Learning.

PEABODY MINORS

A minor is a program with recognized area of knowledge offering students more than a casual introduction to the area but less than a major. Although the completion of a minor is not a degree requirement, students may elect to complete the courses specified for one or more minors. A student who completes all designated courses in a minor with a grade point average of at least 2.0 will have the minor entered on the academic transcript at the time of graduation.

Minors may be combined with any departmental major or interdisciplinary major. Each minor must, however, include at least fifteen credit hours that are not being counted toward any other major or minor. Courses being taken to fulfill a minor may not be taken on a Pass/Fail basis.

Students wishing to declare a Peabody minor must obtain a "Minor Declaration" form available in the Office of Records and Registration or the Departmental Offices. An adviser will not be assigned for minors, and it will not appear on the transcript until the time of graduation. It is the student's responsibility to know and satisfy all the requirements for minors which he/she intends to complete. Minors will be checked during graduation check-out.

Student's wishing to declare a minor in the College of Arts and Science must obtain a "Minor Declaration" form from the appropriate department in the College of Arts and Science where the student will be acknowledged as having a minor. This form must be submitted to the Peabody Office of Records and Registration for processing. A list of Arts and Science minors available to Peabody students are in the Undergraduate Catalog.

Note:
Minors, either Peabody or Arts and Science, are in addition to the Peabody major. Courses in the student's minor must be completed with a cumulative grade point average of 2.000 or better and all courses must be completed on a graded basis.

The following Peabody minors are offered:
  - Child Development
  - Cognitive Studies
  - Educational Studies
