Best wishes this holiday season!

journey together in the new year!

distance and amidst the challenges of a global pandemic. We look forward to continuing the experiences that will enhance the Fellowship.

Program Coordinator as of November. She brings a variety of international and domestic experiences to the Fellows as they look forward to their next destination in Nashville in January. As 2020 comes to an end and we prepare to celebrate the holidays and a new year, we are excited to announce that the Humphrey Fellows will be arriving in just a few weeks, January 10th, after a virtual Fall Fellowship. This year’s Fellows will be joining us from Algeria, Belize, Guatemala, Mauritius, Sudan, and Uganda. Over the last fourteen weeks, we have seen just how important it is to create connections and relationships with the Fellows. We have witnessed the strength and the resilience of the Fellows and how they adapt to the challenges of a global pandemic.

The Humphrey Fellows have served as a reminder that you don’t have to be face to face, or in the same time zone, to show someone you are there to support them. This cohort has already started to build their global village, and they are so excited to expand it when they arrive in Nashville. This cohort has already shown their commitment to building a global village. They have shared their countries, cultures, and experiences with Penn State Fellows throughout the year. The Fellows are excited to continue their conversations with the Penn State Fellows and the Franklin Road Academy students.

The Humphrey Fellows have also shared their stories with Franklin Road Academy (FRA) students. The Fellows have brought a variety of experiences to the students, giving them a deeper understanding of different cultures and countries. The Fellows discussed the big challenges that they are facing in their own countries and how they are adapting to the challenges of a global pandemic. They have shared their countries, cultures, and experiences with the students.
